Dear Patrons,

Once again the organizers of International Gem & Jewelry Show Inc. have changed their policies for admission to the Intergem Shows.

Effective August 13th 2010 free admission tickets printed from internet websites will not be accepted for free admission. In addition, they have decided not to allow children under the age of 8 years to the show.

We understand that these changes are discouraging and heart-breaking for customers as well as vendors. Unfortunately, we do not have a say regarding this. However, if you wish, you may email your concerns to info@intergem.net

Because our business requires extensive travel, we heartily regret, free tickets will no longer be mailed out from our office.

Yours truly,
Amidhara Beads & Findings.
